

COLLECTED NOTES

SEPTEMBER 2024

FROM CDCTC'S PRESIDENT:

Another CDCT Dressage In Wine Country is in the books! Organizing and hosting a recognized show is an enormous undertaking and everyone who helps, even if it's just running to get water, impacts the success of our event. A huge thank you to everyone who competed, volunteered, sponsored, or otherwise supported our show this season!

First off, Darian was a rockstar! It was her first time acting as show secretary and she knocked it out of the park. Better yet, I think she enjoyed it and is willing to come back next year! A huge shoutout to Anita too for mentoring Darian, coming along to help, and otherwise being "useful and invisible," her words. Thank you to Stephanie for stepping in to TD after Anita and I realized we can't count, and also being willing to come back next year. Scott and Susan were fabulous judges and had great words to say about our show. Dr. Meyer made quick work of our two pony measurements and Grace Putnam worked hard fixing shoes. Norm went above and beyond at finding volunteers to fill all the positions. This is the first year I think we've ever had more than enough scribes! Colleen is a real life wonder woman, supporting the office, driving the trailer, aligning rings, and sledgehammering structures. Literally couldn't have done it without her! Homespun Photography got all the good photos so make sure you order some! My Eva offered delicious food and Marie kept our sweet tooth happy (continued)

UPCOMING EVENTS

August 31—September 1: Centered Riding Clinic with Sam Morrison, Healing Rein Farm

October 19-20: How to Address Different Conformations While Training The Dressage Horse" with Kristi Wysocki, Houghton College.

Cayuga Dressage & Combined Training Club welcomes horse enthusiasts from all walks of life, all religions, ethnicities and races, creeds, and sexual orientations. We are a club where differences are respected and appreciated, where we come together to affirm our common love of the horse and the arts of horsemanship. We disavow discrimination and intolerance.

with amazing macarons. Our sponsors helped finance this event and we hope you buy, praise, and otherwise support them for supporting us. And of course without competitors, grooms, their family and friends, this show would not be possible so THANKYOU! And one last special shoutout to Mary Ellen Mulligan for completing her Century Ride at our show. It was so much fun to be a part of and your ride on the lovely Tequila was magic!

What's next? Well by the time you read this, we will have hosted an Open Centered Riding Clinic at Healing Rein. Hopefully we've plugged it enough that you remembered to go audit. I'll be renewing the license for next year's DIWC pronto. It's also time to start thinking about our Awards Gala for the end of the year. If you can dream up any good award types, please let myself, Anna, Colleen, Prin, or Jane-Marie know pronto! We'll be setting a date and location soon so you have something to look forward to.

Don't forget that we are co-hosting a Fall Symposium with WNYDA, October 19-20 at Houghton College. It is titled, "How to Address Different Conformations While Training The Dressage Horse" with Kristi Wysocki. More info can be found on both ours and WNYDA's websites. It looks like it will be a very fun, educational opportunity for all!

Ride all the ponies and jump all the things,

Shannon
